Main Idea:

Cats and dogs are both popular pets. But cats are nicer pets in some ways. Cats are cleaner, first of all. They stay very clean and do not make the house dirty. Cats are also quieter than dogs. They usually do not make a lot of noise. Cats are safer, too. Dogs sometimes bite people, but cats almost never do. And finally, cats are easier to take care of. You do not have to spend much time with a cat. In fact, many cats prefer to be alone.

Topic:

Main idea: Cats are nicer than dog in some ways

Many children want to have a pet. But parents do not like the idea of a dog or a cat in the house. In fact, pets can be good for children. A pet means something to play with. This can be especially important if there is only one child. Also, children can learn a lot from a pet. They can learn about animals and the natural world. Children also learn about taking care of something. They cannot forget about their pet. This is a important lesson for all children.

Topic:

Main Idea:

Most Americans think of cats as pets. But not all cats are pets. Some cats help people and others are problem. For example, on farms and old houses cats can help. They kill small animals such as rats or mice. But sometimes, people do not want cats around. Some people like watch birds in their yards. Cats may kill the birds or scare them away. Cats are also a problem in cities. In Rome, for example, thousands of cats live the streets and old buildings. They make a lot of noise, and they are dirty and dangerous.

Main Idea:

“Black Thursday” is a day many American will nver forget. It was October 24, 1929, the beginning of the Great Depression. Before that day, business in America was growing fast. Between 1914 and 1929, it grew about 62%. But on “Black Thursday” everything changed. On that day, American business suddenly stopped growing. In fact, many businesses stopped completely. The next few years of American history are called the Great Depression. These were terrible years for business and for the people. Five thousand banks and 85,000 businesses failed. Many people lost all their money. About 12 million Americans lost their jobs.

Topic:
Main Idea:

The Great Depression of the early 1930s surprised many people. They did not think American business could have such terrible problems. For a long time, they did not believe the problems were serious. Many businessmen hoped for better times soon. Even President Hoover did not think the Depression was serious. He told Americans in 1930 that the problems were already going away. But this was not true. Millions of Americans did not have jobs. Many of these people did not have homes or food. Life was hard for many Americans. And it did not get easier for many years.

Topic:
Main Idea:

The Great Depression finally ended for several reasons. One reason was a new government with new ideas. In 1932, Franklin D. Roosevelt became President of the United States. He made many changes in the laws to help people. New laws helped American banks and businesses. Other laws gave people jobs and housing. But Roosevelt’s government was only one reason for the 1930s, the United States began to get ready for the war. New factories were built for war planes and ships. That meant more jobs. These jobs gave many people a chance to change their lives.
