PREFACE

INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE ON EDUCATION, MANAGEMENT, AND SOCIAL SCIENCES - (ICEDUMAS 2020) Malang, Indonesia

It is a big pleasure to me on behalf of the Organizing Committee of a one day International Conference On Education, Management, And Social Sciences (ICEDUMAS 2020) to welcome all the delegates and participants of this conference held in Malang city – the beautiful flower city.

Theme of this conference is Managing strategy and education improvement for global situation. As stated in the title, the scope of the conference covers about developing Education, Management, And Social Sciences as a whole and united field.

We are whole-heartedly knowledgeable that differs from academic fields and industry professionals, this conference may also give opportunities to under and post graduate students and research scholars alike to take an active part and present research papers.

By doing so, they will not only gain greater insight into their discipline, but also contribute to the existing body of knowledge in that domain.

I am certain that the conference will prove to be a healthy point of academic interaction and so the students and faculty members as well will not only give but also benefit and draw inspiration from the talks and presentations from the distinguished guests.

I would like to express my deep appreciation to keynote speakers for the efforts to present the ideas and methods in a lively and accessible way.

I would like to thank those who have responded to our call to take part and to contribute to this conference. We have a big hope that all of you enjoy, and get more knowledge and fruitful experience through the conference.

Finally, but not least, support and efforts from the conference organizing committee – Bioleagues Worldwide, and UIN Maulana Malik Ibrahim Malang as a co host were absolutely essential to this conference.

Abstract:

This study aims to examine in depth the theoretical basis of the internal quality assurance system (IQAS/SPMI) at UIN Maulana Malik Ibrahim Malang Indonesia (UIN Malang). This research uses qualitative research methods and data analysis techniques with interactive analysis models. The research results can be concluded as follows: 1) Building a vision of producing Ulul Albab characters; 2) Building a scientific structure based on the integration of science and Islam with the metaphor of “the Tree of Science”; 3) Making religious values the foundation of quality; 4) implementing strategic management, change management and transformative management; 5) Implementing the ISO 9001: 2000 Quality Management System; QMS 9001: 2008 and QMS 9001: 2015; 6) Determining to become an Excellent University with an International Recognition and Reputation; 7) Motivating and stimulating the campus community in carrying out continuous development (continual improvement); 8) Balancing idealism and reality factors; 9) Based on Government Regulation and Statute of UIN Malang; 10) Referring to the quality theories of quality management experts; 11) Adhering to the principles of quality assurance including: a) commitment, b) internally driven, c) responsibility/inherent supervision, d) compliance with plans, e) evaluation, f) continuous quality improvement. This research produces a conceptual foundation of a comprehensive internal quality assurance system (SPMI) and as a guide for conducting quality standards, quality improvement and embodies a quality culture in order to build UIN Malang as a Center of Excellence as well as a Center of Islamic Civilization.
